Career Workshop Series

The Library is excited to host a month-long series of programs and classes on career development and job searching: the Career Workshop Series.

The series will kick off with a workshop led by James Hale of Path Choices titled Job-ology 101: Breaking Barriers on Saturday, April 10 at 1:00-4:30pm in the Library Community Room. This program is free, but registration is required. Please call or stop by the Information Desk to sign up.

Hale is the author of Getting Seen: the Ultimate Guide to Creating the Most Important Document of Your Life — Your Resume and founder/CEO of Path Choices, a Kentucky-based company. In this workshop, Hale will discuss how to stand out among thousands of job applicants and how to increase your chances of making it to the top candidate list.

On Tuesday, April 13, at 2:00-3:00pm in the Library Community Room, we will have Kathy Legel from Adecco Employment Services give a presentation on Career Paths and the benefits of temporary positions.

We will also have a program focusing particularly on Interviews led by Hazel Combs, an Employment Facilitator for the Commonwealth of Kentucky Office of Employment and Training, on Tuesday, April 20, at 5:30-7:00pm in the Library Community Room. Combs will be sharing valuable tips and advice on how to succeed in interviews as well as briefly touching on resumes.

And don't forget! The Library regularly offers a great class on building resumes from a Google doc template, and we will be offering even more sessions of that class in April to go along with this new series.

For more information on any of these programs, please contact Stacy at 502-352-2665 x 106 or stacy@pspl.org.

Holiday Closing Announcement

The Library will close at noon on Good Friday, April 2.

We will be open 9:00am-5:00pm on Saturday, April 3.
