Podcast Reviews by Kids and Teens!

Have you read a good book lately? Tell everyone about it with a podcast review!

Children and teens are welcome to sign up to podcast short reviews of their favorite library books. The reviews will be recorded (audio only) and will involve a brief interview of four or five easy-to-answer questions that can be answered on the spot — there's no homework for this!

The audio clips will then be presented on the PSPL website as podcasts. Only the first name (no other personal information) will be posted on the web. This is a great way to share books with other patrons as well as family and friends!

We're very excited about this new opportunity and what we can do with it in the coming months! This summer, we'll expand the program by creating three two-week-long "book talk" sessions (one for each age group) and the participants in these sessions can choose new selections to review in the podcast format. It's even possible that teens in this book group will also be able to create book trailers using the Library's Flip cameras — another great way to share a good book with others!

For more information, please contact the Youth Services Desk at 502-352-2665 x 205.

Holiday Closing Announcement

The Library will be closed
Sunday, May 30
Monday, May 31
for Memorial Day. We will resume normal hours on Tuesday, June 1.

Authors Visit the Library

This month we will have two author events at the Library!

First, we are excited to have Audrey McClellan here on Monday, May 10, at 6:30pm in the Library Community Room. This program is co-sponsored by the L.I.F.E House for Animals.

McClellan will be reading from and discussing her new book, O'Leary, Kat and Cary Grant. She is also the author of the Scottish Island books. McClellan is a retired librarian from the Minneapolis Public Library.

We are also excited to have Holly Goddard Jones at the Library for a reading and discussion on Monday, May 17, at 6:30pm in the Library Community Room.

Jones, a Kentucky native, is the author of Girl Trouble, a collection of short stories which takes place in a small Kentucky town. It has been praised by People magazine, O: The Oprah Magazine, New York magazine, and more. Jones currently teaches at the University of North Carolina in Greensboro.

Book signings will follow each of the programs.

Both programs are free and open to the public. For more information, please contact Diane @ 502-352-2665 x 108 or diane@pspl.org

Library Fun in Pictures...

The Fairy Tea was held on March 12 & 13. Children (below) got their picture taken with the Fairy Queen.

Sadie Meyer (right) played accompanying music on the violin.

Teens (above) showed off their "Plush Manga" figures after the program on March 15!

Tweens have a lot of fun at the monthly Lego club. Children (right and below) picked out some Legos and built cool constructions on March 20.

Patrons (below) learned about temporary positions and employment agencies at the Career Paths program on April 13.

Fun Fact! Paul Sawyer Public Library Trivia

In the past four years, circulation of Library materials has increased by nearly 22%.
